The Translation of the Roman Missal

Confiteor

The Penitential Act immediately follows the greeting dialogue. Important changes occur in the first form of the Penitential Act, which is the commonly used formula called the Confiteor. “Confiteor” is Latin for “I confess,” and comes from the first line of the prayer.

Most of this text remains the same as the version we presently use. However, there are two key modifications. The first replaces our current wording of “I have sinned through my own fault” with “I have greatly sinned.” The new text reflects the Latin wording by incorporating the adverb “nimis,” which means “very much.”

The second set of changes occurs about halfway through the Confiteor, and is more significant. The words removed from the first section (“through my own fault”) are being returned to their proper place here, but with the expression’s full content.

“Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault” is a direct translation of the Latin phrase “mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa.” As a well-known line from the old Latin Mass, “mea culpa” has even become a familiar part of our secular parlance, by which one admits having made a mistake.

Some might wonder, why this seemingly heavier emphasis on sin in the revised English Confiteor? Looking beyond simple fidelity to the Latin, language that calls to mind our fallen human nature is actually very important in the Sacred Liturgy. The great Apostle of Christ, St. Paul, spoke of his complete and continual reliance on God’s grace in vivid terms well after his conversion: “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Of these I am the foremost” (1 Tim 1:15).

It is good to acknowledge our sinfulness at particular times, just as we should do at sacramental Confession. Unlike Reconciliation, we are not sacramentally absolved of our sins at this point during the Holy Mass. Nevertheless, it is an appropriate way to “prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries,” as the Priest says at the beginning of the Penitential Act. We must strive to approach the altar of God with humble dispositions, and should receive the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ free from grave sin, and in a worthy fashion, as St. Paul exhorts us in 1 Corinthians 11:23-29.

During the Confiteor, the faithful should “strike their breast” while saying, “through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault.” This prescribed “striking” is a symbolic tapping of the chest with a clenched fist over one’s heart, signifying remorse. This is part of the beauty of our Catholic liturgy – sacramental words are complemented by sacramental actions. This action also recalls the penitent tax collector in Luke, chapter 18, who “beat his breast and prayed, O God, be merciful to me a sinner.”

The Confiteor ends with the individual asking for the prayers of the rest of the assembly and the Saints, led by the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose sinlessness and humility are the perfect model for our own Christian lives.

■ Thank you to Sharon McCurdy & Help Group 1

Another beautiful and delicious luncheon was planned, prepared and served by Sharon McCurdy and Help Group 1. We want everyone to know how much this fellowship and service from our parishioners is appreciated so much.. With the busy weekend of our annual Chili Fest event happening on Saturday then to pull off a beautiful luncheon for Diane's leaving her position in the office as you did. Thank you!!

■ Thank you to Abbot Placid Solari for celebrating Mass for us on Sunday, Oct. 2, 2011 at 10:30 am. It was a very special gift for us all.

■ WHY AM I BEING COUNTED?

SUNDAY Mass attendance numbers are required for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis's quinquennial report, which is submitted in advance of the Archbishop's ad limina visit to the Holy See in 2012. Mass attendance counts are something our parish does from time to time of our own accord, in order to gather information that helps the parish better serve all the faithful.

■ Lector & Extraordinary Ministers' Schedule It is time again to make up the new schedule starting January 1, 2012. If you have specific dates that you know you can not serve please notify the office. The schedule will be developed in November. Thank you! 651.465.7345.

■ Congratulations to Magdaline Theresa Leonard daughter of Patrick & Erin who received the Sacrament of Baptism on October 2, 2011. We welcome her into the Catholic faith with God's grace.
