In My Name

- At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." Mk 9:38-39

Why am I being Counted?

Sunday Mass attendance numbers are required for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis's annual report. Mass attendance counts are also something our parish does from time to time of our own accord, in order to gather information that helps the parish better serve the faithful.

The 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 7, 2012

1st Reading: Genesis 2:18-24 (140B)

2nd Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11

Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The bread machine that sits on the kitchen counter of many homes these days eliminates so much of the toil of producing daily bread. Like many of the other labor saving devices in our homes, it is meant to reduce the work while still giving us something that we want. Though we may have seen pictures, few of us have ever seen an actual millstone designed to pummel and fracture the grains of wheat into flour by the work of oxen that walk around and around to roll the stone over the grain in its circular basin. Fewer of us have even worked such a contraption, which was the labor saving device of its day. No longer did women have to pound, beat, and mortar the grain. The oxen did the work, and it was worth it even if you had to give the miller a portion of your harvest to ensure that he ground your grain.

When Jesus suggests that those who would cause others to sin should have a great millstone placed around their necks, his hearers knew immediately what he was talking about. Every village had its own millstone. It was right there out in the open for everyone to see.

We don't like to hear that sin needs a corrective. There is a natural inclination to hide the evil and to pretend that the sin does not exist. But sin needs to be brought out into the open to be cleansed. I'm not suggesting that everyone stand up on Sunday and tell everything that they've done wrong to the entire congregation. But when we own up to what we have done by exposing it to another person through confession, it is like having that millstone right in front of us. We can see it; we can acknowledge it; we can admit that this is a part of who we are. And then we can let it go, no longer burdened with having it hang around our neck.
