In February of this year, Pope Benedict XVI announced the canonization of seven new saints, including Kateri Tekakwitha, to be celebrated in a Mass in Rome on October 21, 2012. Kateri Tekakwitha was the daughter of an Algonquin mother and a Mohawk father who was born around 1656 in what is now New York, and baptized Catholic at the age of 20. She is the first Native American canonized by the Catholic Church.

World Mission Sunday is TODAY!

“Missionaries of Faith”

We are called to this Eucharistic celebration - along with Catholics in every parish, chapel, and church throughout the world - to fulfill the call we first heard at Baptism, the call to be missionaries and to share our faith. We pray for all who long to hear the hope-filled, saving message of Jesus and for the priests, religious and lay catechists in mission countries worldwide who offer them the “Good News.” On World Mission Sunday, we are called in a special way to be “missionaries of faith” through prayer and participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection.

Priesthood Sunday is October 28th.

You can show your support for Fr. Frank and all priests by keeping them in your prayers. Kids are invited to show their appreciation for Fr. Frank by creating artwork and putting it in the collection basket next weekend.

All Saints Day - Thurs., Nov. 1, 2012 Holy Day of Obligation

Mass times: St. Francis - 5:30 pm

St. Joseph - 7:30 am & 7:00 pm

A big thank you to all! The Chili Fest was successful once again!

Thanks especially to Gerry Merth and the Knights of Columbus for organizing this event. Thank you to all who prepared and served food, contributed to the Country Store and Silent Auction, and helped with set-up & clean-up for the event. Deb Dusenka won the “What’s in the wallet?” raffle drawing; its contents were $50 cash and $25 gift cards to Wal-mart and Applebees. Congratulations to our candy counters: Joan Cook guessed 40 caramels (there were 35), John Deneen guessed 333 Good and Plenty candies (there were 335) and Scott Ferris guessed 126 Hershey Kisses (there were 125).

“Fill These Hearts”

In a journey through art, music and spoken presentation, come to a greater understanding of Pope John Paul II’s Theology of the Body. The event will be held at St. Thomas University on October 27, at 7:00 pm. Christopher West is the featured speaker and indie-folk act Mike Mangione & the Union will also be performing. Tickets cost $25.00 each or $15.00 for groups of 10 or more; they can be purchased online at www.fillthesehearts.org.

The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 28, 2012

1st Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9 (149B)

2nd Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

How many times have we seen our children latch on to some instrument, sport, or other activity only to abandon it a few months later? It has happened to all of us. There's the child who insists that he or she is going to play the trombone forever, picks up the instrument, faithfully goes to lessons, and just after mom and dad finally make the outlay on a brand new instrument, the child decides that music is not an interest anymore. Or there's the son or daughter who is intensely interested in soccer, but a year after joining the special teams' league decides soccer isn't that important. A parent could go mad, until we realize that childhood is exactly for this kind of experimentation, finding out what fits and what doesn't.

In some ways this weekend's Gospel is a bit like this. James and John come to Jesus much like the child who asks for the new drum set because he is absolutely going to practice every day! James and John want their reward for walking all over Galilee and Judea with Jesus. When he asks them if they are ready to endure what will come, they answer like the child who says to the parent, "Oh yes, of course. I will practice (piano, basketball, swimming, saxophone-choose one) every single day!" Jesus tells James and John that they will have the hard work and the tribulation, but the reward is given by the Father.

Our children discover over time what the things of value they want to work towards are, and what talents they want to develop. Jesus points out to his disciples that one value is being a servant. A life lesson that we can impart to our sons and daughters as they grow up is one that comes from our faith: how we act toward others and how we care for those in need are important, more important than playing trombone or soccer well.
