RURAL LIFE SUNDAY- Thanks to all who helped make this wonderful celebration possible: Don & Bonnie Quigley for the use of their farm; Bishop Lee A. Piché, the concelebrating priests and Deacon Martin; the lectors, altar servers and musicians; those who donated flowers for the altar; all who helped in serving and preparing the delicious lunch, those who provided entertainment following the Mass, those who helped in the planning, set up, & clean up; and, most of all, everyone who attended our Rural Life Celebration on Sunday, June 23rd. Your support of this Archdiocesan event is greatly appreciated.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Today we support the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disaster and others in need of emergency assistance. Be a pilgrim of charity—please be generous in today's Collection.

CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Please welcome Father Thomas Hunstiger who will celebrate all the Masses and speak on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach. This Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America. Please be generous in your response to Father's appeal. Brochures will be provided if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry.

CONGRATULATIONS! July 1, 2013

is Fr. Frank's 2 Year Anniversary as our Pastor! We wish him well and thank him for all he has done for our parishes.

We all have our disappointments in life. They can range from the inconsequential (the store is out of the brand of laundry soap that I have a coupon for) to the very significant (a diagnosis of cancer or another serious illness). And we all deal with disappointments in different ways. Young children are very good at "catastrophizing" a disappointment. Mom's refusal to get that wanted candy bar in the grocery check-out line can lead to a tantrum. But as any mother knows, not giving in to a child's tantrum is teaching a lesson on how to deal with the inevitable disappointments that are part of each person's life.

In this weekend's Gospel, James and John certainly weren't happy that a Samaritan village was not very welcoming to Jesus and his band of disciples. Recall that Samaritans believed that the place to worship God was on Mt. Gerizim, and because Jesus and his disciples were on the way to Jerusalem, the Samaritans were not interested in aiding his mission. Almost like five-year-olds at the candy display in the grocery checkout line, James and John were ready to call down fire from heaven to wipe out the Samaritans. Jesus did not hesitate to rebuke them for their outburst. On the other hand, even Jesus seemed to express his own sense of disappointment when he says in the Gospel to someone who wants to follow him, "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head" (Lk 9:58).

How we deal with disappointment is a sign of maturity. Jesus makes the point in the Gospel that we have to move forward. Letting go of regrets and looking to the future is wholesome everyday advice. But putting those ideas into the realm of faith means that we confess our sins and seek absolution (the letting go) and direct our lives to God's kingdom. It is looking toward our ultimate future, which is eternal life in heaven.
