THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be celebrated on Thursday, August 15, 2013 and expresses the Church's belief that when Mary died, God raised her into heaven. Because of the time of year it occurs, its a harvest feast. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be celebrated at:

- 7:30 am at St. Joseph Church
- 7:30 pm at St. Francis Xavier Church

Everyone is invited to bring flowers to place in the area around the statue of Mary that day.

“ST. JOE’S EATS” UPDATE

Thanks to Lori Jury for organizing the “St. Joe’s Eats” Fundraiser for the Youth Group. Also, thanks to Larry Julik-Heine and everyone who volunteered their time to set up, grill, serve, and clean-up for this fundraiser. A special thank you to the youth group members who volunteered their time: Sophie, Emilia, Shelby, Dan, John, Nate, Brian, Anna, Sierra, Connor, Katie, and Addie Mae. This event raised $1,132.82 for the St. Joseph & St. Francis Youth Group.

THANKS FROM THE QUIGLEYS

“Thank you for blessing us with the opportunity to host Rural Life Sunday. ‘Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father’ (James 1:17). This event was a gift to all of us at St. Joseph and St. Francis! We unwrapped this gift and found volunteers for planning, food, music, Mass, cookie baking, parking, flowers, set up, clean up, and prayers for this beautiful day! Our flower gardens were in full bloom and our property could not have been “greener!” We are grateful beyond words. We are left with warm memories and still carry the joy within our hearts for this truly amazing day. Thank you for your gift to the St. James Hotel in Red Wing. We accept this with our gratitude to both parishes and Father Frank for your generosity and love. To God goes the glory.”
Don and Bonnie Quigley

CHALLENGE FOR THE WEEK

How do faith and faith traditions help us believe or trust in God? Make a list of the things that God trusts us to do in the world. List the messages about God's kingdom that we are called to proclaim. List the virtues we are called to practice.

Consider the variety of ways we use the word "service" to describe the work of different people. Those who work in government are said to have given themselves to public service. Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines are all part of the armed services. Hotel and restaurant employees are said to work in the service industries, along with barbers, hair dressers, flight attendants, and entertainers, although it is a bit of a stretch to imagine folks like Jimmy Kimmel, Jay Leno, or Stephen Colbert in the same category as the hotel housekeeping staff. Every one of these service-oriented groups also has its caricature of the lazy, inefficient provider. There's the often joked about drivers' license examiner. There is Beetle Bailey of cartoon fame. And comedy skits about airline stewardesses or hotel maids abound. Yet all of these professions continue to distinguish themselves, despite the occasional "bad apple" that may turn up.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus makes it clear that a servant (that is, a believer) must be constantly vigilant. Peter asked directly, "Is the parable meant for us or for everyone?" Jesus didn't answer him directly, but went on to add another parable describing the prudent, industrious servant and the lazy one.

We do not know when the Lord will return, and so we cannot rest on our laurels as though one good deed or one proclamation of the Gospel is enough. Yes, we have our employment, our family, our personal needs that we must attend to. But we are also servants of the Lord. When we get up in the morning, while we are preparing for the day and running through in our heads the list of everything we must accomplish that day, one of the things we can ask ourselves is, "What kind of a servant of God am I going to be today?" That can give us a sense of what can guide our actions as we work though the day.
